

CHAPTER 665

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money therein named to Quigley Brothers for loss sustained as a result of condemnation of swine due to vesicular exanthema.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

There is appropriated from the general fund to the state department of agriculture, the sum of $8,717.85 for payment to Quigley Brothers of the town of New Berlin, Waukesha county, (whose post office address is Box 194, West Allis, Wisconsin) for indemnity on 1,029 head of swine which died or were condemned to slaughter because of the disease known as vesicular exanthema; such payment to be made pursuant to a cooperative disease control agreement with the federal bureau of animal industry as provided in s. 95.17 of the statutes. Acceptance of this appropriation shall operate as a complete release to the state of any claim by Quigley Brothers as a result of the death or slaughter of these swine.

Approved November 20, 1953.
